

Application No. 10/634,538

Attorney Docket No. 592/3

REMARKS

This amendment is being filed in response to a discussion with the Examiner on September 27, 2005. In this amendment, claims 13 and 14 have been rewritten to include the limitations of canceled independent claim 2. Accordingly, all pending claims are believed to be allowable. No new matter has been added.

Conclusion:

It is not believed that any fees are due in connection with this amendment. However, the Office is authorized to deduct any additional fees believed due from, or to credit any overpayment to, our deposit account No. 11-0223. Allowance is respectfully requested.

We respectfully request that the Examiner telephone the undersigned if there are any further issues preventing the case from being passed to allowance.

Dated: September 28, 2005
